

NAPPC
NINETEEN
2019

19th ANNUAL NAPPC INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Agenda***

October 23-24, 2019
U.S. Department of the Interior
1849 C Street NW
Washington, DC 20240
*subject to change

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23rd

Morning Speaker Session (Open to the Public)
8:00 AM	SYDNEY R. YATES AUDITORIUM Security and Registration / Coffee and Breakfast
9:00 AM	Laurie Davies Adams , President and CEO, Pollinator Partnership Pollinator Partnership / NAPPC Welcome
9:10 AM	Bryan Arroyo , Deputy Director, US Fish and Wildlife Service DOI and USFWS Welcome
9:25 AM	Dr. May Berenbaum , Professor and Head Department of Entomology, University of Illinois The insect apocalypse: Loss of biodiversity in the insect world
9:45 AM	Dr. Diana Cox Foster , Research Leader, USDA-ARS Pesticides and Pollinators: Adjuvants and tank mixes
10:05 AM	Dr. Clint Otto , Research Ecologist, USGS Modeling the effects of agricultural land-use change on pollinator habitat
10:25 AM	Break
10:45 AM	Margaret O’Gorman , President, Wildlife Habitat Council Strategic Corporate Conservation Planning
11:00 AM	Mylea Bayless , Senior Director of Networking and Partnerships, Bat Conservation International Bats and Agave: Nectar Corridors and Cultural Connections in the Southwest
11:15 AM	Tim May , President, American Beekeeping Federation The current state of the beekeeping industry
11:30 AM	Laurie Davies Adams , President and CEO, Pollinator Partnership Bees, butterflies and your well-being
11:45 PM	Transition to NAPPC Member Only Session
12:00 PM	Lunch – DOI Cafeteria
1:00 PM	Sydney R. Yates Auditorium 2018 Task Force Reports
1:30 PM	Honey Bee Health Updates
	Makaylee Crone	Penn State University The effectiveness of manipulating pollen macronutrient ratios to improve honey bee resilience to pesticide stress.
	Zachary Lamas	University of Maryland Varroa behavior invading brood cells and the consequences of co-infested cells.
	Dr. Ana Montero-Castaño	University of Guelph Elucidating the role of crop flowers as reservoirs of pathogens and the influence of the pollinator community on pathogen transmission to honey bees.
	Madeline Carpenter	Penn State University Breeding for tolerance to DWV in honey bees.
	Liz Walsh	Texas A&M University Quantifying the impact of pesticide contamination in the wax rearing environment on developing honey bee queens.
Dr. Jacob Wenger	California State University, Fresno Assessing Synthetic Amorphous Silica (SAS) for the Management of Small Hive Beetle ( Aethina tumida ).

	19th ANNUAL NAPPC INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE  Agenda*          October 23-24, 2019          U.S. Department of the Interior          1849 C Street NW          Washington, DC 20240          *subject to change	 NAPPC
--	--	---

2:45 PM	Break/Transition to Breakout Groups
3:00 PM	Task Force Session 1
5:00 PM	Day 1 Ends - Wrap Up and Instructions
6:00 PM	Reception and Award Ceremony: Enid A. Haupt Garden (East Terrace next to the Arts & Industries Building) 1050 Independence Ave SW, Washington, DC 20560

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24th
Final Day of NAPPC Member Sessions
8:30 AM	SYDNEY R. YATES AUDITORIUM Security and Registration / Coffee and Breakfast
9:00 AM	Breakfast Briefings
10:15 AM	Task Force Session 2 (Move to Task Force Rooms)
11:55 AM	Task Force Wrap Up (Head to DOI Cafeteria)
12:00 PM	Lunch - DOI Cafeteria
1:00 PM	SYDNEY R. YATES AUDITORIUM 2019 Task Force Reports
2:00 PM	Evaluations and Wrap Up
2:15 PM	NAPPC/P2 Closeout
2:30 PM	Conference Ends