

NAPPC NINETEEN 2019

Pollinators, People, Planet CONFERENCE PUBLIC SESSION

(Free Event!)

Wednesday, October 23, 2019
9:00 – 11:45 AM

Join us to hear world renown speakers at the Sydney R. Yates Auditorium at the Department of the Interior!

The North American Pollinator Protection Campaign's (NAPPC) mission is to encourage the health of resident and migratory pollinating animals in North America.

REGISTER at www.pollinator.org/nappc/registration-public by Friday, October 18, 2019.

This is a secure building and you must register for this event. Contact nappc@pollinator.org with any questions.

SPEAKERS

Bryan Arroyo, US Fish and Wildlife Service
DOI and US FWS Welcome

Dr. May Berenbaum, University of Illinois
The insect apocalypse: Loss of biodiversity in the insect world

Dr. Diana Cox-Foster, USDA-ARS
Pesticides and Pollinators: Adjuvants and tank mixes

Dr. Clint Otto, US Geological Survey
Modeling the effects of agricultural land-use change on pollinator habitat

Margaret O’Gorman, Wildlife Habitat Council
Strategic Corporate Conservation Planning

Mylea Bayless, Bat Conservation International
Bats and Agave: Nectar Corridors and Cultural Connections in the Southwest

Tim May, American Beekeeping Federation
Current State of the Beekeeping Industry

Laurie Davies Adams, Pollinator Partnership
Bees, butterflies and your well-being

US DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Sydney R. Yates Auditorium
1849 C Street NW,
Washington DC, 20240