

Take the Pollinator Power Party Bingo Challenge

Complete 5 activities in a line to get your Pollinator Bingo!
Color in the bees as you complete the challenges, and post your party celebrations to social media using the hashtag #PowerInPollinators to be entered in the Pollinator Power Party giveaway!

Available on the Pollinator Power Party Website*

Count how many pollinators you see on a walk around your neighborhood	Build, make, or buy an insect hotel for solitary bees	Draw a picture of a bumblebee, butterfly, or moth	Research what types of bats live in your area	Visit your local community garden

Commit to Leave the Leaves in one area of your yard or patio this fall	Make an observation in the Party Bioblitz*	Replace one non-native plant with a native plant in your garden	Eat a snack that relies on pollinators	Create a native plant list for your region with the Find Your Roots Tool*

Volunteer with a local organization to remove invasive species	Read a book about pollinators	FREE SPACE	Count how many homes on your block or patios in your complex have native plants in their garden	Volunteer with a local organization to plant native species

Write a poem about pollinators	Research invasive plant species in your area	Observe a beetle or fly on a flower	Take a walk, read, or have a picnic in an outdoor area	Support local beekeepers by purchasing honey made near you

Look up whether your area is part of the monarch migration pathway	Make an origami pollinator*	Modify your outdoor lights to be nocturnal pollinator-friendly	Add a wildlife water source to your yard or garden	Post to social media about Pollinator Week using the hashtag #PowerInPollinators
				