

Governor's Proclamation

WYOMING POLLINATOR WEEK

*State of Wyoming
By the Governor*

WHEREAS, pollinator species such as birds and insects are essential partners of farmers and ranchers in producing much of our food supply; and

WHEREAS, pollination plays a vital role in the health of our national forests and grasslands, which provide forage, fish and wildlife, timber, water, mineral resources, and recreational opportunities as well as enhanced economic development opportunities for communities; and

WHEREAS, pollinator species provide significant environmental benefits that are necessary for maintaining healthy, biodiverse ecosystems; and

WHEREAS, the State of Wyoming has managed wildlife habitats and public lands such as forests and grasslands for decades; and

WHEREAS, the State of Wyoming provides producers with conservation assistance to promote wise conservation stewardship, including the protection and maintenance of pollinators and their habitats on working lands and wildlands.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK GORDON, Governor of the State of Wyoming, do hereby proclaim June 19th – 25th, 2023 as throughout the State of Wyoming, and urge all residents to recognize this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Seal of the Governor of Wyoming to be affixed this 25th day of May, 2023.

The Honorable Mark Gordon
33rd Governor of the Great State of Wyoming
