

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, pollinator species such as birds and insects are essential partners of farmers and ranchers in producing much of our food supply; and,

Whereas, pollination plays a vital role in the health of our national forests and grasslands, which provide forage, fish and wildlife, timber, water, mineral resources, and recreational opportunities as well as enhanced economic development opportunities for communities; and,

Whereas, pollinator species provide significant environmental benefits that are necessary for maintaining healthy, biodiverse ecosystems; and,

Whereas, the state of South Dakota has managed wildlife habitats and public lands such as South Dakota forests and grasslands for decades; and,

Whereas, the state of South Dakota provides producers with conservation assistance to promote wise conservation stewardship, including the protection and maintenance of pollinators and their habitats on working lands and wildlands:

Now, Therefore, I, Kristi Noem, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of June 19, 2023, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Three.

Kristi Noem, Governor

Attest:

Monae L. Johnson, Secretary of State
