

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

- WHEREAS, pollinator species such as birds and insects are essential partners of farmers and ranchers in producing much of our food supply; and
- WHEREAS, pollination plays a vital role in the health of our national forests and grasslands, which provide forage, fish and wildlife, timber, water, mineral resources, and recreational opportunities as well as enhanced economic development opportunities for communities; and
- WHEREAS, pollinator species provide significant environmental benefits that are necessary for maintaining healthy, biodiverse ecosystems; and
- WHEREAS, the State of Vermont has managed wildlife habitats and public lands such as Vermont forests and grasslands for decades; and
- WHEREAS, the State of Vermont provides producers with conservation assistance to promote wise conservation stewardship, including the protection and maintenance of pollinators and their habitats on working lands and wildlands.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim the week of June 22-28, 2026 as

in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 21st day of June, A.D. 2026.

Philip B. Scott
Governor
