GUBERNATORIAL PROCLAMATION

Rhode Island Pollinator Week

WHEREAS, pollinator species such as birds and insects are essential partners of farmers and ranchers in producing much of our food supply; and

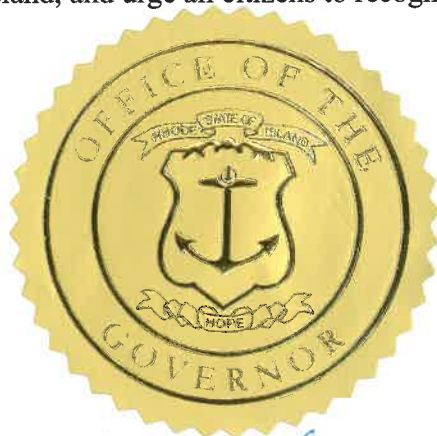

WHEREAS, pollination plays a vital role in the health of our national forests and grasslands, which provide forage, fish and wildlife, timber, water, mineral resources, and recreational opportunities as well as enhanced economic development opportunities for communities; and

WHEREAS, pollinator species provide significant environmental benefits that are necessary for maintaining healthy, biodiverse ecosystems; and

WHEREAS, the State of Rhode Island has managed wildlife habitats and public lands such as State forests and grasslands for decades; and

WHEREAS, the State of Rhode Island provides producers with conservation assistance to promote wise conservation stewardship, including the protection and maintenance of pollinators and their habitats on working lands and wildlands.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Daniel J. McKee, Governor of the State of Rhode Island, do hereby proclaim the week of June 21-27, 2021 as to be Rhode Island Pollinator Week in the State of Rhode Island, and urge all citizens to recognize this observance.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Rhode Island, this 1st day of June, 2021.
